

I am writing about the proposed NJ Do Not Call law. We support the bill however we oppose the provision that prevents us from calling people who are already clients but have not had contact for some time.